WING COMMANDER'S ADDRESS

I'D LIKE TO TAKE A MOMENT TO CONGRATULATE YOU FOR COMPLETING ONE OF THE MOST REWARDING EXPERIENCES OF YOUR CAP CADET CAREER -- THE CALIFORNIA WING CADET ENCAMPMENT.

EACH OF YOU HAS WORKED HARD ALL WEEK TO EARN YOUR GRADUATION CERTIFICATE, AND YOU'VE PROVEN THAT YOU ARE TRULY CIVIL AIR PATROL CADETS.

ENCAMPMENT IS AN UNIQUE TRAINING OPPORTUNITY THAT EVERYONE CAN HAVE ONLY ONCE, BUT IT IS ONE WHICH WILL LIVE WITH YOU ALWAYS. I STILL HAVE VIVID MEMORIES OF MY BASIC ENCAMPMENT AND THE IMPORTANT LESSONS THAT I LEARNED THERE.

THOUGH THE PAST EIGHT DAYS, YOU'VE LEARNED THE CONCEPT OF TEAMWORK, AND YOU'VE PRACTICED IT. YOU'VE DONE YOUR PART TO MAKE A FLIGHT AND A CADET TRAINING SQUADRON. AS A REWARD FOR YOUR EFFORTS, YOU HAVE EARNED YOUR PLACE AS A MEMBER OF

COLONEL
ERNEST C. PEARSON

COMMANDER
CALIFORNIA WING

THE CADET TRAINING GROUP, THE FINEST TRAINING ORGANIZATION IN CALIFORNIA WING.

HAVING RECEIVED THIS TRAINING, I CHALLENGE EACH OF YOU TO GO BACK TO YOUR UNITS AND USE WHAT YOU'VE LEARNED. TAKE HOME WHAT YOU'VE LEARNED AND DEDICATE YOURSELVES TO PROVIDING QUALITY TRAINING TO THE CADETS AT HOME UNITS.

TODAY, AS YOU MARCH IN THE REVIEW CEREMONY, MY HEART WILL SWELL WITH PRIDE, JUST AS YOURS WILL. THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION IN THE "ENCAMPMENT EXPERIENCE" AND CONGRATULATIONS ON THE SUCCESSFUL ACCOMPLISHMENT OF ENCAMPMENT.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL JOHN C. HADLEY
ENCAMPMENT COMMANDER

CADET TRAINING GROUP

" In 1975, recognizing the need for continuity in the encampment program, Captain Christopher Richow, California Wing Director of Cadet Programs, was authorized to implement the "California Wing Cadet Training Group" (CTG). This simple concept provided for continuity in command from encampment to encampment. Only cadets could belong to the CTG. Instead of re-using squadron numbers from year to year, each squadron would be activated at the start of encampment and then deactivated at the conclusion. The first commander of the CTG was Cadet Colonel Scott E. Bartel. The Commanders of the first Cadet Training Squadron were: 1st CTS Cadet Captain Andrew K. Weaver; 2nd CTS Cadet Captain Michael J. Kathriner, 3rd CTS CTS Cadet Captain Anthony G. Scotch. Each year, since 1975, California Wing encampment have continued with sequential numbering of the Cadet Training Squadrons. Thus the Cadet Training Group transcends time and is always active. It's current status is that of an unchartered unit within California Wing. Training philosophies and techniques are uniform from encampment to encampment, regardless of the location held or the make up of the staff..."

CADET LIEUTENANT COLONEL
RICHARD C. PARKER

This year the cadet staff has been under the leadership of C/LTC Richard Parker. He has been at eight encampments before this and his experiences and feelings about the CTG made him the best qualified applicant this year.

He believes that encampment is an opportunity for the cadets and staff to return to the fundamentals of encampment. He sees this week as the first chance for a generation of cadets and staff to return to McClellan Air Force Base.

CADET MAJOR KARL-HEINZ KOEPPEN
CADET TRAINING GROUP EXECUTIVE OFFICER

C/Maj Koeppen has spent the last week within the confines of his office training the support staff. You will best remember him for the famous "ATTENTION TO ORDERS ..." He found it an enjoyable challenge to work with headquarters.

NICOLE M. ELLINGWOOD
SERGEANT-MAJOR

" This encampment has been one of the most challenging experiences in my CA Wing career, but with the help of the cadet staff as well as the cooperation from basic cadets it has turned out to be an excellent encampment."
